About this Document

On 24th February 2022, there will be a referendum on a 'Neighbourhood Development Plan' (Neighbourhood Plan) for your area. This document explains more about the referendum that is going to take place and how you can be involved in it. In this document, you can find out about:

- The referendum and how you can take part

Referendum on the Neighbourhood Plan

A referendum asks you to vote 'yes' or 'no' to a question. For this referendum, you will receive a ballot paper with this question:

"Do you want East Devon District Council to use the Neighbourhood Plan for Dalwood to help decide on planning applications in the neighbourhood area?"

How do I vote in the referendum?

You vote by putting a cross (X) in the 'Yes' or 'No' box on your ballot paper. Put a cross in only one box or your vote will not be counted.

If more people vote 'yes' than 'no' in this referendum, then East Devon District Council will use the Neighbourhood Development Plan to help it decide planning applications in Dalwood. The Neighbourhood Development Plan, once formally adopted (or 'made'), will then become part of the statutory Development Plan for the area.

If more people vote 'no' than 'yes', then planning applications will be decided without using the Neighbourhood Development Plan as part of the Development Plan for the local area.

What is a Development Plan?

In England, planning applications are determined by local planning authorities, in accordance with the Development Plan for their area. A Development Plan is a set of documents that set out the policies for the management of development and use of land across the entire local authority area.

Within East Devon, the local planning authority is East Devon District Council. The development plan for the district of East Devon currently consists of the adopted East Devon Local Plan (2013- 2031); Devon Waste Plan (2011-2031); Devon Minerals Plan (2011-2031); the East Devon Villages Plan (2018), and; any 'made' neighbourhood plans.

What is Neighbourhood Planning?

Neighbourhood planning aims to help local communities play a direct role in planning the areas in which they live and work. A community can choose to prepare a Neighbourhood Plan. This Plan can show how the community wants land to be used and developed in its area.

What is a neighbourhood area?

A neighbourhood area can cover single streets or large urban or rural areas. The boundaries of a neighbourhood area are put forward by either:

- Town or Parish Councils, or;
- A neighbourhood forum (a group of at least 21 people in areas without town or parish councils)

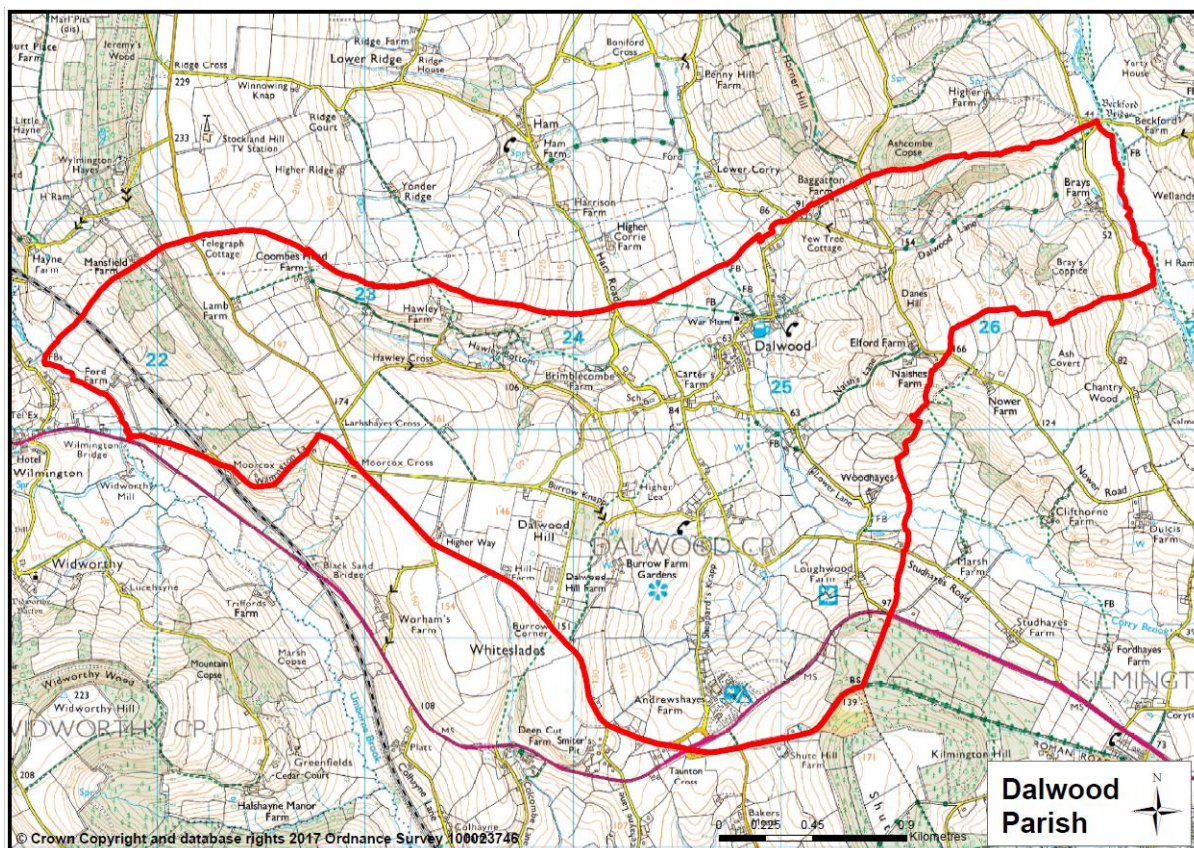

In Dalwood, the boundary of the neighbourhood area was put forward by Dalwood Parish Council and determined by East Devon District Council. It is identical to the parish area of Dalwood.

Who can prepare a Neighbourhood Plan?

Neighbourhood plans are prepared by town or parish councils, or neighbourhood forums. In this case, the Dalwood Neighbourhood Development Plan was prepared by Dalwood Parish Council in consultation with the local community.
