

Clyst Honiton Neighbourhood Development Plan INFORMATION FOR VOTERS

Referendum: Thursday 23 January 2025

About this Document

On Thursday 23 January 2025, there will be a referendum on a 'Neighbourhood Development Plan' (Neighbourhood Plan) for your area. This document explains more about the referendum that is going to take place and how you can be involved in it. In this document, you can find out about:

- The referendum and how you can take part
- The neighbourhood area
- The Neighbourhood Plan
- The local development plan (of which neighbourhood plans are part)
- Where to find further information

Referendum on the Neighbourhood Plan

A referendum asks you to vote 'yes' or 'no' to a question. For this referendum, you will receive a ballot paper with this question:

"Do you want East Devon District Council to use the Neighbourhood Plan for Clyst Honiton to help it decide on planning applications in the neighbourhood area?"

How do I vote in the referendum?

You vote by putting a cross (X) in the 'Yes' or 'No' box on your ballot paper. Put a cross in only one box or your vote will not be counted.

If more people vote 'yes' than 'no' in this referendum, then East Devon District Council will use the Neighbourhood Development Plan to help it decide planning applications in the Clyst Honiton Neighbourhood Area. The Neighbourhood Development Plan, once formally adopted (or 'made'), will then become part of the statutory Development Plan for the area.

If more people vote 'no' than 'yes', then planning applications will be decided without using the Neighbourhood Development Plan as part of the Development Plan for the local area.

What is a Development Plan?

In England, planning applications are determined by local planning authorities, in accordance with the Development Plan for their area. A Development Plan is a set of documents that set out the policies for the management of development and use of land across the entire local authority area.

Within East Devon, the local planning authority is East Devon District Council. The development plan for the district of East Devon currently consists of the adopted East Devon Local Plan (2013-2031); Devon Waste Plan (2011-2031); Devon Minerals Plan (2011-2031); the East Devon Villages Plan (2018); and any 'made' neighbourhood plans.

A new East Devon Local Plan (to 2042) is currently being prepared with an expectation it will be adopted in 2027. This emerging plan will ultimately replace the current adopted Local Plan and ahead of this, it can be given some consideration, where policies are relevant to the assessment of planning proposals.

What is Neighbourhood Planning?

Neighbourhood planning aims to help local communities play a direct role in planning the areas in which they live and work. A community can choose to prepare a Neighbourhood Plan. This Plan can show how the community wants land to be used and developed in its area.

What is a neighbourhood area?

In East Devon, the boundaries of a neighbourhood area are put forward by town or parish councils. They typically cover a whole parish, but they can cover a smaller or larger area, as considered appropriate.

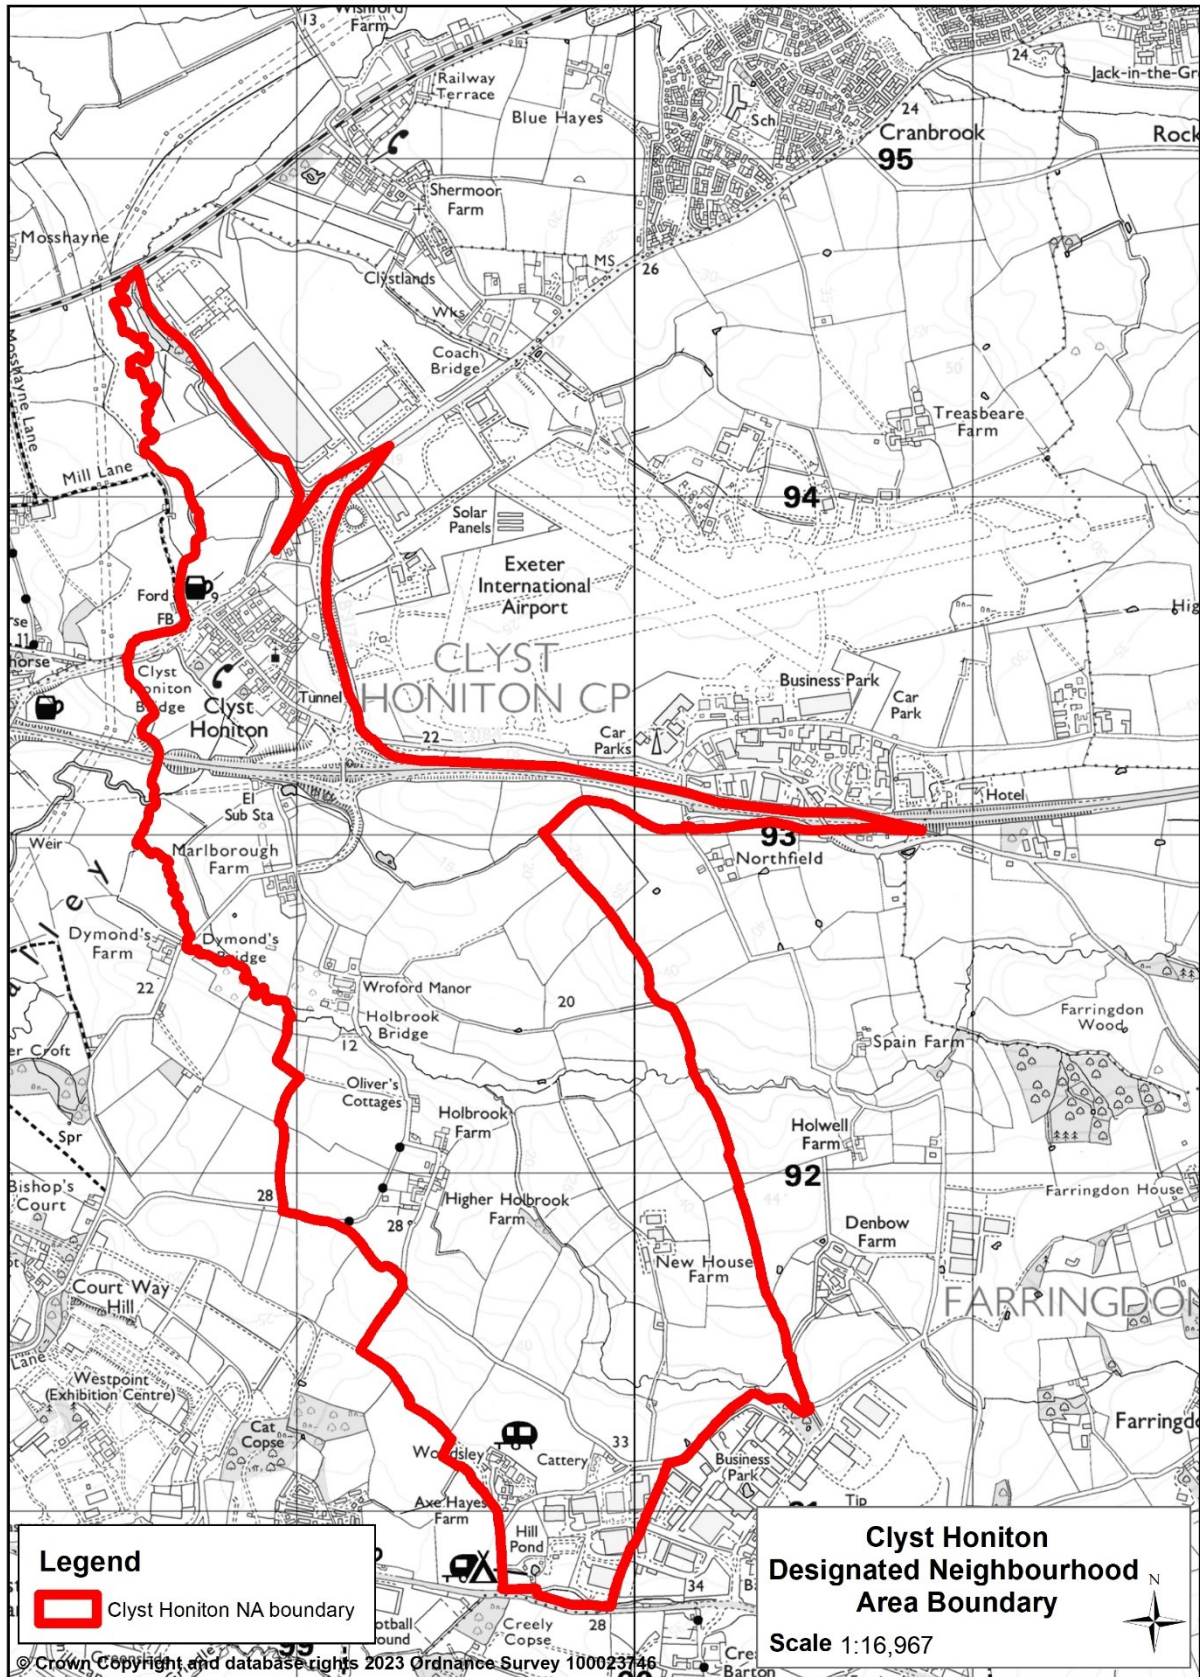

In Clyst Honiton, the Parish Council proposed the whole administrative parish of Clyst Honiton as a neighbourhood area. East Devon District Council approved a smaller Neighbourhood Area boundary to exclude strategic development areas (of Skypark, Cranbrook and its expansion areas, Exeter Airport, Exeter Business Park and the Intermodal Freight Facility (now Lidl Distribution Centre) in the north and east (shown overleaf).

Who can prepare a Neighbourhood Plan?

In parished areas like East Devon, Neighbourhood plans are prepared by town or parish councils. The Clyst Honiton Neighbourhood Development Plan was prepared by Clyst Honiton Parish Council, via a Steering Group, and in consultation with the local community.
